This 4-bedroom home is located in a highly desirable neighborhood and sits on a corner lot, offering added space, privacy, and curb appeal. The property features a 2-car garage, 1.5 bathrooms, and a functional layout with wood floors throughout much of the home. A cozy fireplace anchors the main living area, while a built-in smoke and carbon monoxide monitoring system provides added safety. The home does need cosmetic repairs, making it an excellent opportunity for buyers or investors to update and customize while building equity in a sought-after location. Possible conversion to multi-family as well.
