Open House June 13, 1-2:30. Striking and sophisticated riverfront condominium in superb location, with close proximity to restaurants, shops and theater on Spring and Water Streets, the Taconic Golf Club, Williams College, and the Clark Art Institute. One of only 6 recently built town house units on the river in the handsome Cable Mills complex, number 8 has benefitted beautifully from the discerning taste and style of its owner, with elegant yet understated lighting fixtures, and enchanting touches of color and texture throughout. Light-filled with an abundance of large windows, it offers as well two terraces and two upper decks providing opportunities for al fresco dining and fresh air relaxation. A sleek suite of Thermador appliances graces the kitchen/dining area which includes both a breakfast nook with built-in bench seating, and a more formal dining area. The dramatic two story living room, with a chic wall-mounted gas fireplace, affords winter views of the river and access to the dining terrace. The second floor comprises an interior balcony overlooking the living room; a primary bedroom suite with reading cubby, access to a private deck, a richly appointed bath and generous California Closet; another bedroom (with another California Closet) on the riverside within earshot of the gentle flow of the water, and another similarly appointed full
