Own a Living Masterpiece. Meticulously curated by the current stewards since 2006. This Colonial Revival offers rare fusion of 18th-century authenticity and cutting-edge modern comfort. Designed for both grand-scale entertaining and intimate family life, this c1930, 7,894 sq. ft., Colonial Revival offers 6-bdrms & 4.5-baths. The interior is a treasure of artisan craftsmanship from the formal dining room with its magnificent shell-carved cove, to original cabinetry with rare wood inlays, hand-carved bookshelves, a classic butler's pantry, multiple stately fireplaces anchor the formal living spaces. Enjoy panoramic views and privacy from the grand porch overlooking 4 pristine acres. a state-of-the-art kitchen featuring Wolf and Sub-Zero, and no expense spared Geo-Thermal heating/cooling. Gracefully sited on pastoral grounds with distant mountain views, this circa-1930 Colonial Revival estate represents the elegance and cultural legacy of the Berkshires' celebrated country-house era. Attributed to prominent Pittsfield architect Joseph McArthur Vance, the residence was conceived as a refined summer retreat for a prosperous owner from a prominent Boston family who made the Berkshires their seasonal sanctuary in the early twentieth century. During the height of the Tanglewood years, the home was part of the region's vibrant
