5 Bedrooms | 5 Bathrooms | 4,948 Sqft

Designed in 1929 by noted architect Henry Seaver (Berkshire Museum, Lenox Town Hall), this distinguished Georgian Colonial was once the centerpiece of Pittsfield's social scene. The home preserves exquisite 18th-century details - mantels, wainscoting, and finely crafted woodwork salvaged from two of the city's earliest residences, making it a living piece of Berkshire history. Set back on 2.5 private acres along prestigious Crofut Street, the estate offers 5 bedrooms and 5 baths, including twin primary suites ideal for hosting friends and family year-round. Gracious living and dining rooms, a peaceful sunroom, a cozy study, and a large eat-in kitchen with Viking range and butler's pantry combine period elegance with modern comfort. This turn-key estate is offered fully furnished and enhanced by a new heating system. Spend summer days by the heated in-ground pool or evenings on the patio savoring the serenity of the lush, private grounds. Perfectly situated just minutes to Lenox and Tanglewood, it's equally suited as a full-time home, seasonal Berkshire getaway, or luxury investment with a successful rental history ready to enjoy from day one!
