This 10-acre parcel in scenic Richmond, available for the first time in generations, offers a rare chance to build your dream home in the heart of the Berkshires. Surrounded by open farmland and natural beauty, this property provides a peaceful and inspiring setting for a country retreat or a year-round residence. The land features gently rolling meadows filled with wildflowers and native ferns, a private pond, and groves of mature trees. Ideally located minutes from Tanglewood, Lenox, plus cultural & recreational amenities that define the Berkshires--including hiking, biking, skiing, and world class museums like Mass MoCA. An exceptional canvas for a legacy home in one of the Berkshires' most coveted locations.
