You'll feel right at home in this charming Richmond farmhouse, just minutes from West Stockbridge center and close to everything the Berkshires has to offer. Set on two beautiful, private acres in the historic Richmond Furnace district, this three-bedroom house blends New England charm with modern amenities, including energy-efficient solar panels, newer appliances, and Buderus boiler. The main level offers a smooth flow, featuring a spacious kitchen, bright sitting room with sliding doors to the deck, an inviting living room with fireplace, and an enclosed porch/mudroom accessible from the driveway. A full bath and first-floor laundry add practical convenience. Upstairs, three cozy bedrooms and a flexible bonus space offer options for a guest room, home office, or future reconfiguration.
